Welcome

Dear companies,

We are glad and proud to welcome you in Aalborg, the capital city of North Jutland region. This edition of ESREF will be a unique one, in particular for exhibitors. In fact, more than 400 participants are expected from all over the world, 50% of them from companies or private research institutions. On top of it, exhibitors will be able to invite external visitors to the stands and offer them coffee.

Aalborg University is the Danish university with the strongest academic environment and it is number 8 in the world and the best in Europe within the field of Engineering (source from US News World Rank 2018). This ranking is based on various indicators, such as project-portfolio, industrial relations, global reputation, research impact, publications and top-professors in terms of research impact. It will maintain the momentum of past ESREF conferences as well as introduce new aspects of topics, especially in the field of reliability of power electronic components and systems.

The venue is particularly convenient as Aalborg airport has plenty of daily flights from and to Amsterdam and Copenhagen, where international and intercontinental connections are available. AKKC – the Aalborg Congress and Culture Centre – is less than 20-minute drive from the airport, with direct buses all day and a very convenient taxi service.

In this brochure, you find all the relevant information regarding the exhibition. Thirty booths of three sizes are available. The availability is based on a first-come-first-served basis. You are most welcome to ask for specific request, such as two or three adjacent booths and special facilities. In the end of this brochure, you can also find the exhibition application form, ready to be subscribed.

We are also sure that you will enjoy the ESREF2018 app, where all exhibitors will be listed with their logos, summary and contact reference. The app will be made available on both Google Play store and Apple app store, and will include networking and chat opportunities. Do not hesitate to ask us about special advertisement requests; we are sure we can find the way to help you.

Not lastly, let us seize the opportunity to thank the exhibition & sponsors secretaries Maria Hald Friis and Hanne Munk Madsen.

We look forward to seeing you in Aalborg,
